NUMB. 1746

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13. 1741.

It has been often remarked by Foreigners to our Disadvantage, that we are the only Nation in the World which continues divided at home, when we are engaged in a War abroad. Other People, from the Moment they commence Hostilities against their Enemies, forget Domestic Quarrels among themselves. This was the Custom of the ancient Romans, as their Histories inform us, Custom which contributed not a little to their growing and keeping so vast an Empire. But we are governed by Reason, or govern'd by Experience: and we too commonly decide, even in Points of Importance, as it directs. A Man falls into a Fit of railing against Persons in Power, charges with secretly delaying the War, raising the new taxes without Necessity, and distressing Vernon out of his Temper; he will be no Time-server, he will say what he thinks; 'tis his Humour, forsooth, that he is borne with, however illegal and impertinent. Numbers of these Humourists confer and disagree, mutually persuading each other, that theirs is a Mark of extraordinary Probity; and industry to find Fault with all Things an indubitable proof of a superior Genius. Thus such as are evidently ill-qualified for the Direction of their Affairs, assume an unreasonable Authority of doing whatever is done in respect to the Publick.

They apply themselves therefore to study not of Government, but the Art of conducting a Ministry. Instead of acting on Principles dictated to them by Science, and supported by Reason, they adhere to what is best calculated to serve their Purpose, and to please a Religion by the same Rule. Thus, heretofore, the Patriots were always Remonstrants, and the Grofs of our ancient Sticklers against the Puritans. The whole Tenor of their Speeches is in the same Strain, the slightest Motion which regulated as the most important. They now but with Design, and even their Compliments have Meanings. On this Behaviour they value themselves, and as coolly talk of embarrassing the Government they live under, as if it was a commendable State is to them a Chess-Board, on which they endeavour to push, about Pieces of all sorts, with as little Concern as if they were Box or had been produced by Providence to furnish them with Exercise or Amusement. In Discourse, but in great Assemblies, these Wise Men will shew only Publick Spirit but Piety; tho' in Private they shew no Signs of either; nay some, in their Moments, and among such as they can trust, make all Scruple of ridiculing and exploding both.

These a third Sort associate, who pique themselves wholly on the Imitation of their Ancestors in Eloquence and Policy, tho' nothing of their own is descended with their Estates: And besides, they differ too, in their adhering to what their own Oppose, that they may make a false Display of being in seeming to attack the greatest. This is a Foible incident to all Ages. The second is Buckingham, of the Surname of Villiers, descended from the Interests of the Crown, and of all his Parts, and wasted a great Estate, in being the Son of that Prince, who at the Hazard of his Crown protected and aggrandized his Father. He named some other Persons who lived in those, somewhat later Times, who have acted much in the same Manner. But this must seem needless, in a Country wherein nothing is more frequent than to hear the Publick thrown in the Teeth of a Minister, Men who owe the Weight they have, in the vast Fortunes, to this very Kind of Plunder. Nothing but an Acquaintance with Mankind, and an impartial Scrutiny into the Motives of their Actions, can enable one to judge who is the true, and who is the false Friend to his Country; our great Politicians!

Great as a Nation as this there will be always Numerous discontented and wrong-headed People, of every Sort and Class. These disciplin'd and kept in Order, by a few subtle, self-interested Politicians, will make a considerable Figure in Opposition to the best Measures of the wisest Ministry upon Earth. It is impossible indeed to guard against all Accidents, but much more so against all Imputations. However innocent Governors may be, crafty Accusers may wire-draw their Actions so as to give a Colour to their Accusations. All Virtues may be maliciously construed into the Views produced by their Excess. Caution may be styled Cowardice, kind Intentions to the People may be termed Cajoling, and a strict Attachment to the Constitution pass for a Desire of maintaining old Evils. At home, necessary Taxes may be flung at as intolerable Burthens, Regular Troops pictured out as Disciplin'd Banditti, and the unavoidable Expences of Government raised at as extravagant Profusion. The same Charges may be varied to an infinite Degree, and tho' often and fully refuted, may after a proper Interval be revived, and insisted upon with as much Spleen and as much Assurance as ever. These are allowable Arts in all but the Friends of a Ministry.

Such well-meaning People as fancy that a great Party form'd against an Administration, black Accusations brought against it, and a loud Clamour raised to support them, are Evidences at least of some Degree of Guilt, are strangely mistaken. Ill Men will as naturally oppose a good Ministry as true Patriots a bad one, and as the former will go greater Lengths and venture upon bolder Measures than other Men, consequently they will be able to lift a numerous Party, and play off their respective Foibles to Advantage, I mean, to the Advantage of themselves. This in a Time of War will be more practicable than any other. Whatever is done may be misconstrued, and whatever is not done shewn to be expedient. Every intended Expedition may be ridiculed while provided for; if it miscarries, this proves it ill-concerted; and if it succeeds, it may be called a happy Temerity, or the Credit of the Deed may be transferred from the Contriver to any one who had a Hand in the Execution. These are a few known and but too much beaten Practices; there are also some of a more refin'd and delicate Nature, worthy of the most graceful Patriot, in a well-conducted Opposition. For Example: When good News for a Ministry is hourly expected, then the grand Attack ought to be made; because, tho' it does not succeed, yet it gives an Air of Luck to the propitious Advices, and affords the Malecontents an Opportunity to place their Miscarriage to the Account of Fortune, which encourages the Party to rally and take the Field again. Besides, it qualifies the People's Joy, and hinders them from growing good-humour'd upon their Success. It is also convenient to take such Steps as may amaze Foreign Powers; and above all, Machiavelian Wits know how to make the most meritorious Actions High Crimes and Misdemeanours by Inuendo, which serves to slur great Characters, tho' not to confound their Fortunes. However, no Man can tell what repeated Attempts may do, and therefore the Motto of the Party is PERSIST, or, as the Word signifies in Chinese, LIE ON.

R. FREEMAN.

Petersbourg, Jan. 26.

THE Marquis de Boita, Lieut. Velt Marshal in the Service of the Queen of Hungary, is arrived here with the Character of her Envoy Extraordinary, as is the Count de Lynar with that of Plenipotentiary from the King of Poland. The Errand they are both come upon is no Mystery, and 'tis not doubted but the Marquis will succeed in all the principal Articles of his Negotiation.

The late Duke of Courland's Brother and General Bismark his Brother-in-law are actually sent to Siberia, and the Duke himself with his Family will soon follow, if he be not already on the Road.

Dresden, Feb. 4. M. de Bulow, the Minister of State whom his Majesty sent to the King of Prussia in Silesia, from whence he has been return'd a Week, is set out again this Morning for the Court of Berlin. As to the Tenor of his Instructions, or the Train of his Negotiations, nothing of either as yet transpires, the Court observing so profound a Secrecy upon both these Articles that 'twas not till the other day that we saw the first Letter which his Polish Majesty wrote to the King of Prussia on the Affair of Silesia. 'Tis dated the 17th of December, and we shall insert it in our next.

Olmütz in Silesia, Feb. 1. General Browne retires back as fast as his Enemies, who by far outnumber him, advance into the Country; but he is now at Weiskirchen, where he expects to be reinforced every Day. We have no Confirmation yet of the Skirmish said to have happen'd near Fulneck; but on the other hand we hear, that a Party of our Hussars has taken a Convoy of Meal, Rye, and Oats, and three Pieces of Cannon, which the Count de Schwerin was sending for from Ratibor. This is perhaps the little Affair of Fulneck.

Weiskirchen, Jan. 31. A Party of our Hussars lately attack'd 400 Prussians near Odrau, and took three Field-Pieces from them, besides a great Quantity of Provisions which they were carrying to their Army. The Count de Schwerin sent two Letters Yesterday to the Baron de Schurbitz and the Count de Schalm, Captains of the Circle; but those Gentlemen sent them back again this Day unopen'd. We hear the Queen of Hungary has resolv'd to take some thousand Hessians into her Pay.

FOREIGN PORTS.

Lisbon, Feb. 4. N. S. On the 31st ult. arrived the Dolphin, Stamper, from Philadelphia; the Bee, Wills, and the Roebuck, Pynn, from Newfoundland; the O-Senhor de Matozinhos e Almas, Pinto da Cunha, from London; the Speedwell Prize, Betagh, from Dublin; On Feb. 1. the Molly, Arthur, from Philadelphia; the Cleaves, Damon, from Newfoundland; the Finch, Moody, from Rotterdam; On the 2d, the Juffrou Catherine, Reaytzer, from Scotland. On the 31st ult. failed the Prince Frederick Packet, Lovell, for Falmouth; On Feb. 1. the Newbury, Richardson, for Dublin; the Charming Mary, Lyon, and the Farnley, Bowles, for London.

Lisbon, Feb. 11. N. S. Since the 4th Instant arrived the Eagle Packet, Bennet, in 5 Days from Gibraltar; the Tellingin, a Dutch Man of War, Capt. Wafener, from Holland for Genoa and Leghorn; a Genoese from Trani; a French Ship from Genoa, and the Leonard, Giles, with Rice from South Carolina, who narrowly escap'd being taken just off of the Bar by a Row-boat. Another Brigantine is off the Bar, and the Fly Sloop also to protect her, and 'tis hop'd she will catch the two Row-boat Privateers. It hath blown fresh at S. E. and if the Row-boats are gone any Distance from Shoar, we hope the Fly Sloop may nab them.

HOME PORTS.

Dover, Feb. 11. Arrived the Henry and Mary, Maxwell, from Antigua: 'Who left that Place the 21st of December, and brings Advice that the Elizabeth Store-ship, one of Sir Chaloner Ogle's Fleet, was then at that Place; that Sir Chaloner, Lord Cathcart, and the greatest Part of the Fleet, were then at Dominica taking in Water, which when they had compleated they were to go to St. Kitt's, which is the Place of their Rendezvous, to join the rest of the Fleet which are there waiting, and then to sail for Jamaica.' Arrived the Speedwell, Gray, from Maryland last from Plymouth; the St. Anthony, —, from Lisbon; and a new Pink from Virginia, Name unknown. Came in the Catherine and Susannah, Laverance, from London for Dartmouth. Wind S.S.W.

Deal, Feb. 11. Wind S. W. All the Outward-bound remain in the Downs as per Yesterday. Came down since the Parham Club, Hyer, for Antigua. Arrived the Penelope, Barret, from Antigua last from Bristol; the Carter, Grey, and the Success, —, from Virginia; the Lymington, Masters, from Bristol.

Arrived

At Oporto, the Boneta's Prize, Chamberlain, from London.

At Antigua, the Eagle, Long, bound from London for Carolina, but was blown off that Coast.

LONDON, February 13.

Extract of a Letter from Antigua, dated Dec. 19.

'I wrote to you the other Day by the Kitty, Capt. Stamper, since which I heard by a Sloop from Mountserrat, who spoke with Capt. Edmond Smith, bound for Jamaica off that Island, that he and all were well on board.

'Yesterday our Alarm Guns fired all round the Island on account of some Ships that appear'd off Capt. Drummond in the Leostoff Man of War spoke with them, one was Capt. Tho. Oliver in the Revolution, Capt. Savage, Capt. Conway, and two more, Names unknown; they are

are all Transports. Capt. Drummond is just come from Barbados, says that Capt. Knowles in the Weymouth Man of War was arrived there, and that he parted with the Fleet about 300 Leagues to the Eastward of Barbados. This Day we were alarm'd again by ten or eleven Sail of Ships appearing off the Windward of the Island, but not yet known who they are, 'tis believ'd they are Part of the Transports. Capt. Lee arriv'd here to day with the Train of Artillery aboard and some Officers belonging to it, who are not yet come ashore. Capt. Lee broke the Head of his Rudder, occasion'd by his touching here, but designs to sail again To-morrow or next Day to St. Kitt's, where the Captains Oliver, Savage, Conway, &c. are gone. When I know what Vessels are gone by, will let you know.

This Moment is arriv'd the Neptune, Bracking, from Lancaller. Capt. Wager in the Snow Pope's-head will sail for London in four or five Days, when I shall write you again.

Extract of another Letter, dated Dec. 20.

"I wrote you last Night by this Vessel, and as something has happened since, I now advise you of it, the Vessel being just going under Sail, and hurried to get this aboard. Capt. Hinton's Ship the Victory arrived here about an Hour ago; there has been a Sort of Contagion or Sicknefs on Board, that several died of it at Sea: Capt. Hinton himself is dead, one of his Mates, and some of the Men. Dr. Sherwood, a Passenger, was ill, and they say jump'd out of one of the Cabin Windows in a Sort of Delirium, and was lost. One Miss Field, a young Lady of this Island, died, as did an Officer and some of the Soldiers aboard. I am told by some who have been on Board the Vessel, as she came to without the Bar, that she is in the utmost Confusion; and one Mr. Reed a Passenger just now told me, that on Thursday last, which was the 18th instant, he left Sir Chaloner Ogle, with 17 Men of War and 57 Transport-ships all at Dominica, where they water, and to go down to St. Kitt's, to meet the Ships that are there. He also told me, that Lord Cathcart in an 80 Gun Ship had passed by, and went directly to St. Christopher's, being pretty much indisposed; also that 6 of the Men of War were not arriv'd being behind the rest with several Transports, that had been separated in a Storm in the Bay of Biscay, but are hourly expected. There's a Letter or Order come from under Sir Chaloner Ogle's own Hand, for the Saltash Man of War, Capt. Toms, to come to him immediately; so that 'tis certain he is at Dominica."

The Fly Sloop of War, Capt. Smith, and the Fox Man of War, Capt. Edwards, sailed from Lisbon the 2d Feb. N. S. to cruise on the Coasts of Portugal, &c.

The Prince of Orange, Capt. Osborn, and the Superbe, Capt. Harvey, two of the Squadron separated from Sir Chaloner, were remaining at Lisbon the 4th of Feb. N. S. as were also the Rye, Capt. Lushington, and the Deal-castle, Capt. West, which last was soon to sail from thence as Convoy of the Fleet for England.

The Young Eagle, Capt. Philip Dumaresq, and the Vernon, Capt. George Willis, both English Privateers, also remain'd there.

They write from Paris, that none of the Measures hitherto taken by the French Court, have been effectual to restore Plenty to that Capital, tho' new Projects for that Purpose are presented every Day to Cardinal Fleury.

This being the Day of the Month when, in 1689, WILLIAM III. and his Princess MARY, both of Glorious Memory, were proclaim'd King and Queen of England; and when in 1703 the Act for the Security of the Succession in the Illustrious House of HANOVER was pass'd by the House of Commons, to the Exclusion of all Popish Pretenders; 'tis not doubted but an Anniversary which puts us in mind of Blessings so dear to all good Englishmen; will be commemorated with Joy, and Gratitude to those true Patriots who were the Instruments in the Hand of God for procuring and preserving them, at the Hazard of their Liberty and Lives.

Yesterday being the last Day of Term, several Persons who stood bound over for divers Misdemeanors appeared on their Recognizances at the Court of King's Bench, and were further continued.

Last Night John Selwyn, jun. Esq; Member of Parliament for Whitchurch in Hampshire, lay at the point of Death at his House in Cleveland-court, St. James's, being given over by his Physicians.

The Right Hon. the Lord High Chancellor will hold the First General Seal after Hilary Term on Wednesday next.

Norfolk-House, February 11, 1740.

Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales will go out of Mourning for the late Duchess Dowager of Saxe-Gotha, on Sunday next the 15th instant.

Dr. ROBERT EATON BALSAMICK STYPTICK Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's late House, now Mr. DUTTON's in Salisbury Court Street.

THIS Medicine restrains in a surprising Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting, also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoides or bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, used according to the plain Directions given with it, appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians in the large Account of this Medicine, written by himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shore, or Abroad, i. e. in all Climates, therefore must be useful.

The Doctor not only obtained his Majesty's Letters for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine, also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting Medicine from the Inspection of the Censors of the Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. Some of the Apothecaries prepare a Styptic Prefertion of Helvetius, and use it in the Room of EATON'S; but whoever tries both, will soon be perswaded that Ours exceeds theirs in all Respects, is a more certain Degree.

Sold, by Licence, at Garraway's Old Shop, Practical at the Royal Exchange; Mr. R. Bradshaw's Warehouse at the Royal Exchange; Mr. John Potter, Chymist, in the Tower Lane; Mr. William Evans, Bookbinder, in the Strand; Mr. Bookbinder, at York; Mr. Roe, in D rby; Mr. Raikes, Printer, in Gloucester; Mr. Printer, in Northampton; Mr. Thomas Greenhill, Bath; Mr. Abree, Printer, at Canterbury; Mr. an Apothecary, at Kidderminster; Mrs. Trollope, keeper, in Exeter; Mr. Hallifax, an Apothecary, at Mrs. Unett, a Bookbinder, at Wolverhampton; Mr. Bryan, a Printer, at Worcester.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID SO exceedingly valued by Ladies

Quality and all who have used it, for its transcendent efficacy in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands, most exquisite Perfection possible, is to be had only at Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Dunstons Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features on the Spot, and a surprising Handfomness to the Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly fine and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can sooner or more certainly away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Heat, Swellings, Morpheus, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Sun-burn, or any other Discolouring, nor remove all so perfectly; for it quickly makes the Skin become comparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and beautifully white, cause Admiration in the Beholders.

It really gives a most engaging resplendent Brilliancy to the whole Countenance, and causes sparkling Life, Spirit, and a noble Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is so gentle, that it exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and tho' brown, to a natural, youthful Fairness, Smoothness, and ing Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates, thus ROYAL BEAUTIFIER prepared from the purest of Mercury, or any Thing Metellic, but is perfectly safe and may be given inwardly even to Children. It is a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Linnen, and is agreeable to use.

But these its admirable Properties, by which it exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpose, have many to imitate it under various other Names, be fore of such Impositions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given such universal Satisfaction to Ladies of Distinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyshop above-mentioned at 3s. 6d. a Bottle with a Glass and no where else in England.

The King of Poland's Letter to the King of Prussia, mention'd in our last.

YOUR Majesty inform'd us by your fraternal and cordial Letter, dated the 1st Inst. of the Resolution you had taken to send your Troops into Silesia, and to seize that Duchy in the present critical Juncture, with a View of claiming and maintaining to your utmost the Rights of your Electoral Family against all Incroachments.

But to say nothing for the present of the Pretensions and Considerations urged by your Majesty as the Motives of your Resolution, we cannot conceal from you, that the Care we are bound to take as Vicar, for the the Preservation of Peace and Tranquillity, especially in the Provinces belonging to our Vicarship, obliges us to wish that your Majesty may not proceed to the Execution of the Design to seize that Duchy, or of any one of the Places thereto belonging; in order by such moderate Conduct to prevent the extraordinary Umbrages which a Potentate of your Majesty's refin'd Penetration is fully sensible will infallibly be taken, both within and without the Empire.

As your Majesty has been pleased to assure us in your Letter, that you have no Design to injure any Power whatsoever, and much less the House of Austria, and that on the contrary you was disposed to employ all the Forces which God has granted you, for the Preservation of the Constitution of the Empire, and the Prerogatives, Liberties, and Privileges of each State, as also to protect the dear Country against all manner of Invasion, we hope that you will lend an Ear to our Counsels, and not take it amiss that we put you in mind of your own Promises;
and desire you at the same Time, as Vicar of the Empire, constantly to persevere in the laudable Resolution of concurring to the Maintenance of Peace and Tranquillity, without permitting any Thing to divert you from it. Your Majesty's acknowledg'd Equity giving us Reason to hope that you will conform to our Wishes, we shall always make it our Rule to give you Proofs of our Attachment, &c.

S I R,

AS Dominique, or Dominica, where we are informed the greatest Part of Sir Chaloner Ogle's Fleet stop'd, in his Way to Jamaica, to take in Water, is mistaken by many People for the Island of St. Domingo, or Hispaniola, which belongs partly to the Spaniards and partly to the French; you would do well to acquaint your Readers, that Dominique is one of the Caribbee Islands claim'd by the English, and accordingly set down in the Commission of the Governor of Barbadoes, tho' it has been more frequented by the French than the English. It lies about 20 Miles N.
from the French Island of Martinico, in Lat. 15:30, and has a delicate Bay at the North West Side of it,
large enough for a very great Fleet, with two Hot Baths that run into a River near the Sea, said to be as hot as the King's Bath in Somersetshire, and as useful to the Sick. The Island is said to have had the Name of Dominique, from its being discover'd by Columbus on St. Dominic's Day.

PARSONS

PARSONS Mayor. At the General Quarter Session of the Peace holden for the City of London, at the Guildhall, within the same City, on Wednesday the Fourteenth Day of January, in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Second, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and in the Year of our Lord 1740, before the Right Honourable Humphry Parsons, Esq; Mayor of the same City, and others his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the same City.

Whereas the Punishment of the Pillory, which is by Law intended as a Means to expose infamous Offenders to publick View, is in a great measure eluded, by the permitting such Offenders to cover their Faces; And whereas also the same is become dangerous to such Offenders, by reason of the cruel and inhuman Treatment they generally meet with from the Hands of the Populace, which Practices are not only manifestly illegal, but highly reflect upon the Execution of the Laws of this Kingdom: This Court having therefore taken the Premises into Consideration, and being willing to remedy the same for the future, hath ordered and directed, that no such Offenders shall be suffered to cover their Faces during the Time they shall stand in the Pillory; And that all Constables and other Officers, who shall be commanded by the Sheriffs of this City for the Time being, to be attending and assisting upon any such Punishment, to be inflicted upon any Offender within this City, be very vigilant in the detecting and apprehending of all such Persons who shall, in Contempt of the Law and this Warning, presume to throw any Dirt, Eggs, or other Thing whatsoever, at any Person so standing in the Pillory as aforesaid, and forthwith carry them before one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for this City, in order to their being proceeded against according to Law; And it is further ordered, that publick Notices hereof be printed, and upon all future Occasions stuck up at convenient and adjacent Places to the Pillory.

By the Court,

An Infallible and Instant Cure

For DEAFNESS, THICKNESS of HEARING, PAIN or NOISE in the EARS, &c. by the Chymical Specifick DROPS.

WHICH infinitely excel all other

Medicines ever offer'd to the Publick, or known in the world for they directly cure Deafness, be it ever so bad, and the Noise of Hearing and Noise in the Ears, almost at once, after all other Means have failed, and without Trouble, least Uneasiness whatever, as many Thousands have experienced.

They effectually remove all Pain occasion'd by Cold, the Tympanum or Drum of the Ear, free the auditory Nerve Obstruction, and remedy all Defects of the Hearing, most in an Instant, causing those to hear exceeding well, who before were in a Manner totally Deaf.

Hundreds who were so very bad, as not able to hear when beat close by them, and therefore despair'd of ever relieved, have been quickly and perfectly cured by their great Joy and Admiration.

In a Word, nothing in Nature can come near them for the almost immediate Cure of DEAFNESS proceeding from what Cause soever; but the great Esteem and Reputation justly gained for many Years past, have occasion'd (as usual Cases) many Counterfeits to come abroad; beware therefore such Impositions, these excellent and only true Specifick Drops, to be had only, by the Author's Appointment, of the women at the two Blue Posts in Haydon-Yard, in the Strand, 11. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions, and no where else in Europe.
